Announcing the launch of a new style of event management!

'We are always looking for the WOW, that unique thing that will make your clients, family or friends talk about your event for years to come'

After recently arriving on Australian shores, JVG Events founder, Johanna Garnett, prides herself on creating events which make people talk for years to come. JVG Events specialise in events which are unique.

Located in the beautiful Swan Valley, JVG will help you with any aspect of your day. With over 10 years of events management, JVG can help you organise a small intimate dinner for two to events for 35, 000 people.

Johanna comments, 'Every event helps you to build on your relationships with your family, friends and colleagues. We have the experience and knowledge to help you with your event from conception to delivery regardless of scale or budget. We aim to offer a first class, personalised service for all your event management needs.'

Types of event JVG Events do ...

Garden Soirees, Weddings, Summer Balls, Corporate team Building Days, Christmas Parties, Dinner Parties, Baby Showers, Award Ceremonies, and much more...

Whilst at University, Johanna began working for GWR Radio in the Midlands (UK). After a time she moved to working for local government, responsible for developing a tourism strategy for local tourism providers in the Northants area which included attractions like Althorp House (home of the late Diana, Princess of Wales), Cottesbrook House, Fawsley Hall Hotel, British Waterways as well as developing and managing a wide range of local and regional events. She then worked as a Events and Entertainment Manager at Wicksteed Park in Kettering, a position which was unique as she was not only the youngest manager they had employed but also the first female manager in the park's 80 year history.
